

BAMBOO AWARD FOR HEALTH CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

International Community Health Services (ICHS) and the ICHS Foundation invite you to submit your nomination for the 2012 Bamboo Award for Health. The Bamboo Award was established for the purpose of recognizing the outstanding work of individuals or agencies whose strong achievement has resulted in:

- Increased access to health services for ICHS patients, clients and/or the local Asian and Pacific Islander (API) community and other local underserved communities; and/or
- Improved measurable health outcomes from ICHS patients, clients and/or the local API community or other local underserved communities; and/or
- Increased resources that allow ICHS to serve and/or expand its patient and client populations.

Nomination and Selection Process

Nominations must be made on behalf of an individual or agency; Self nominations will not be accepted. ICHS staff and board members (current or former) are especially encouraged to submit nominations.

All nominations must include the completed nomination form, with an optional narrative of achievement not to exceed two (2) pages. Nominations will be accepted until the end of business day of March 14, 2012.

The award will be presented at the ICHS gala on May 19, 2012. Awardees will be contacted at least 30 days prior to the event.

Nominations must be submitted via mail, email or fax to any the following:

About ICHS and the ICHS Foundation

ICHS is a nonprofit community health center that offers affordable health care services to Seattle and King County's Asian, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander communities, as well as other underserved communities. For over 37 years, ICHS has provided culturally-appropriate and multilingual care to improve the health of our community.

The ICHS Foundation was established in 2007 to provide philanthropic support for ICHS. Its goal is to generate financial resources to help ICHS serve uninsured and underserved patients, make capital improvements and expand services, and provide culturally appropriate health education and prevention services.
