

Ron Chew Healthy Aging & Wellness Center

The Ron Chew Healthy Aging & Wellness Center in Seattle's Beacon Hill neighborhood helps people age 55+ live independently in their communities through a joint Medicare and Medicaid program called PACE or Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly.

BY THE NUMBERS

134 → 400 participants

In 2025, ICHS PACE served 134 elders with capacity for up to 400

Where participants live

86% Seattle
4% Bellevue
10% Other King County

74 zip codes

We provide door-to-door service for participants

Languages spoken by participants

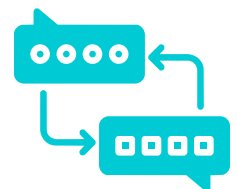

1. Cantonese
2. Mandarin
3. Taishanese
4. English
5. Vietnamese
6. Other Chinese

Average age of ICHS PACE participants

95%

Participants who need interpretation services

11 core disciplines

Each elder has a personalized care plan with medical, physical, and social services

1973

The year ICHS began, opening to care for elders in the Chinatown-International District